

The Greatest Book Ever Written

Many will agree that the Bible is the greatest book ever written. They will not all agree on which translation is the greatest. After reading the following I believe their opinion will change. The Bible tells us to “prove all things and hold fast to that which is good.” [I Thessalonians 5:21] “The Bible also tells us to study.” [II Timothy 2:15] There is a unique relationship between the first verse and the last verse in the Bible. This relationship also has reference to a very powerful verse in the Bible. These relationships can only be found in the Authorized King James Bible.

The following miraculous phenomenon was discovered some years ago by Periander A. Esplana, a Christian from Camarines Norte, Philippines. It may be, perhaps, God’s way of confounding “the wise and prudent,” who suggest that the Trinity of 1 John 5:7 does not belong in the Bible. From the following we can draw no other conclusions than that the Holy Bible, even in one of its many forms, reveals the glory of God. There are no books in the world, let alone other English Bible versions, or do-it-yourself translations from Greek and Hebrew lexicons (done by bible schools students), that will exhibit this:

1 John 5:7 = Genesis 1:1 + Revelation 22:21

First verse: “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.” Gen. 1:1 [KJV]

Last verse: “The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.” Rev. 22:21 [KJV]

“For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost; and these three are one.” I John 5:7 [KJV]
